

Click to verify

ESL resourcescrime B1-B220-30 minsgroups: 3-4Cut up anecdote about being robbed on a bus.B1-B2Six crime cases. Student's take it in turns to read out their case. The group must decide on sentences for each case in turn. Can also be used to practice criticism, should have etc.B1-B245 minutes +groups: 2-3News story with three tasks: ordering, retelling the story from prompts and grammar gap-fill. (4 sheets)B1-B2Full text of robbery story for analysis: Ss underline verbs, identify instances of passive voice and T elicits reasons for its use: - unerstood / unimportant subjects.B1-B2News story gap fill to practice the written forms of different tenses in the passive voice. Step-by-step instructions included.B1-B21 hourgroups: pairs / whole classgap fillquestion writingSplit bank robbery story with gaps (pair work) leading to alibis game (whole class). (7 sheets including instructions sheet and answers.)Three English robberiesThree 250-word texts on the best-known UK robberies since WWII: the Great Train Robbery, the Brink's Mat robbery and the Hatton Garden safe deposit burglary. PDF download with comprehension and vocabulary exercises.Material from other sourcesMysteryNet Website offering online mysteries to solve and short mystery storiesCyber crime 26 March 2008 Presenter and quest talking about Internet crime. 6 minutes. MP3 download available. Difficult words glossary.Prison restaurants Two presenters (British English) discuss language aspects of a news story about a restaurant that has opened in a prison. 6 minutes. MP3 download available. Difficult words glossary.VideoSpeakout Advanced Podcast Unit 4 Justice People in the street answer questions about justice. Have they ever had reason to contact the police? Have they ever broken the law? What legal or social issues concern you the most? If you could introduce a law in your country or community what would it be? Inside Out Student's Book AdvancedUnit 3 CityPage 31City life Two people discuss the city they live in. Follow-up discussion on safety in students' home towns Inside Out Student's Book IntermediateUnit 6 NewsPage 53Topic is not addressed directly - comes up in news stories - 'News in Brief' New Cutting Edge Upper Intermediate students' bookModule 3 Adventures and mishapPages 30- 31reading and speaking Discussion about anti-social crime and reading about gentle policing methods in Denmark Advanced Communication Games22 Elementary, my dear WatsonPage 22Students read clue cards and make deductions to solve a murder2 Who killed Robbin Koch?Page 2Complex murder solving role-play (16 role cards) in which participants need to ask each other questions to piece together events in the dead persons life. Intermediate Communication Games22 - It wasn't me, Officer?Page 22Role play with cards. Ss have to identify various suspects for thefts. Just Listening and Speaking Upper IntermediateListening 16 - Crime doesn't pay!Pages 42- 43News-style reports of crimes that went wrong. (Humorous?). Some crime / court related vocab. crimeSee more teaching and learning resources for crimeB1-B2groups: 2-4Six-page set of worksheets for 16 intermediate level crime words: assault, blackmail, burglary, corruption, forgery, fraud, hijacking, kidnap, mugging, murder, rape, robbery, smuggling, theft, shoplifting, terrorism plus corresponding verbs and nouns for people. B1-B2Nine short news-in-brief stories gapped for the following crime words: kidnapped, kidnapper, ransom, hijacked, mugged, smuggle, murder, blackmailed, arson, fraud, manslaughterB1-B2Dominoes game for past / present / present perfect tenses - bank robbery themeC1groups: 2-4Six-page set of worksheets for 16 upper-intermediate / advanced level crime words: arson, child abuse, drunk driving, drug trafficking, embezzlement, manslaughter, money laundering, perjury, phishing, pickpocketing, piracy, libel, stalking, treason, trespassing, vandalism plus corresponding verbs and nouns for people. C1Matching activity based on the vocabulary highlighted in BBC 6 minute English programme 'Cybercrime' . Link ESL resourcescrime B1-B2groups: 2-4Six-page set of worksheets for 16 intermediate level crime words: assault, blackmail, burglary, corruption, forgery, fraud, hijacking, kidnap, mugging, murder, rape, robbery, smuggling, theft, shoplifting, terrorism plus corresponding verbs and nouns for people. B1-B2Nine short news-in-brief stories gapped for the following crime words: kidnapped, kidnapper, ransom, hijacked, mugged, smuggle, murder, blackmailed, arson, fraud, manslaughterB1-B2Dominoes game for past / present / present perfect tenses - bank robbery themeC1groups: 2-4Six-page set of worksheets for 16 upper-intermediate / advanced level crime words: arson, child abuse, drunk driving, drug trafficking, embezzlement, manslaughter, money laundering, perjury, phishing, pickpocketing, piracy, libel, stalking, treason, trespassing, vandalism plus corresponding verbs and nouns for people. C1Matching activity based on the vocabulary highlighted in BBC 6 minute English programme 'Cybercrime' . LinkCrime vocabularyRevises words covered in Real Listening and Speaking 3, page 52.Material from other sources Just Listening and Speaking Upper IntermediateListening 16 - Crime doesn't pay!Pages 42- 43News-style reports of crimes that went wrong. (Humorous?). Some crime / court related vocab. ESL Crime Worksheet - Vocabulary and Grammar Exercises: Gap-fill, Identifying, Unscrambling, Matching, Writing Questions - Speaking Activity: Role-Play - Pair Work In this productive crime worksheet, students practice crime vocabulary and take on the role of detectives, making past and present simple questions relating to a crime... read more ESL Crime, Law and Punishment Role-Play - Speaking Activity: Form Completion, Presenting Information, Guided Discussion, Freer Practice - Group Work In this imaginative crime, law and punishment role-play activity, students invent a theft and present evidence and suspects to a jury, who try to identify the perpetrator of... read more ESL Criminal Trial Role-Play - Speaking Activity: Free Practice In this handy criminal trial role-play activity, students take part in a mock criminal trial in order to practice vocabulary related to crime, law and punishment. Explain that the students are going to plan and conduct a mock criminal trial to determine if a suspect is... read more ESL Crime Worksheet - Vocabulary, Reading and Writing Exercises: Word Search, Matching, Gap-fill, Writing and Presenting a Criminal Plot, Freer Practice This insightful crime vocabulary worksheet helps students practice nouns and verbs used to discuss common crimes. First, students find the names of ten crimes in a... read more ESL Crime Role-Play - Vocabulary and Speaking Activity: Asking and Answering Questions, Table Completion, Matching, Gap-fill - Group Work This engaging crime role-play and worksheet helps students learn and practice the names of crimes. In groups, students take on the role of the criminal on their card. Their task is to find out why the other people in... read more ESL Crime Vocabulary Game - Speaking and Vocabulary: Impromptu Speech - Pair Work In this fun crime vocabulary game, students talk about crime-related words for one minute. The activity covers types of crime, criminals and punishments. In pairs, students begin by adding five crime-related words of their own to their grid on the worksheet. Students then take turns calling out... read more ESL Teacher, Timor-Leste "There are a lot of resources that are useful for teaching English. I downloaded the games which are handy and use them in my classes. With the games, my students never skip class or feel tired to learn English. The resources for teaching English helped my students progress in grammar, vocabulary, writing and comprehension. They also helped me a lot to guide my students to learn in a practical way." English Instructor, United States "Thank you for providing these incredible resources. Teach-This.com is always my go-to site for class activities, and I recommend it often. I love how it is organized. I can find resources for a specific grammar concept or language function by level and type of activity. Every time I visit your site, I discover a new classroom interaction strategy that's perfect for teaching the concept I'm focusing on! When I return after the holidays, yours will be the first subscription I restart." ESOL Teacher, United Kingdom "I am an ESOL teacher, and the resources have helped my classes enormously. In particular, the speaking activities were a great help for my intermediate students before their exam. The website is user-friendly, and I will continue to utilise the resources - next term is reading and comprehension, so I will be looking for more resources from you. Thank you for such helpful activities and worksheets. They save me a lot of time in class preparation." ESL Teacher, France "Teach This is an absolutely brilliant website, offering a vast amount of high-quality content, much of it free. Everyone involved in its creation deserves commendation. The leadership's vision has my deepest respect and gratitude. It's undoubtedly the best resource for English teachers, with its clear layout, easy navigation, concise messaging, and lack of invasive advertising - rare qualities that Teach This has perfected." English Teacher, Laos "When I need to add or change an activity from my school's curriculum, I always turn to TeachThis. While our curriculum is usually very good, it sometimes doesn't fit well with my students. With TeachThis, I can easily find activities that match my topic and level, and the resources make my classes more interesting and varied. I look forward to the monthly newsletter and exploring new materials for inspiration. Please keep it up!" English Tutor, Australia "I like the efficiency and organization of the website. The resources cater to various levels with topic-based options for higher levels. The worksheets are very engaging and the answer keys are particularly helpful for teacher. The resources are also highly specific to levels and outcomes, making planning much easier. Finding what I need is simple and time-saving with the keyword search feature. Everything is clear and straightforward." ESL Teacher, Switzerland "The easy and ready-to-go materials have helped me a lot during the last few years. Most of all I like the grammar games that activate my pupils and keep them engaged. My lessons have become way more playful and varied. Additionally, I like the grammar worksheets which I use to consolidate what I have worked on during class. The website is very user-friendly, and I have never had any difficulties finding what I was looking for." Business English Teacher, Canada "A friend told me about the site, and it's awesome. I have found the Business English resources especially engaging and relevant for my students as the materials help them understand business writing and terms. My teaching experience has also improved from using the games on the site as they allow me to teach in a fun way. The user experience is outstanding. Great job!" English Teacher, Mexico "I found Teach-This a long time ago when I started teaching. It's always had great resources. I really appreciate the grammar materials, board games, and group activities. They've saved me lots of time on lesson planning. The materials are easy to use and understand, making my job much simpler. The best thing is that many resources can be downloaded for free. I've used it for around 8 years, and it consistently offers great content." Primary School Teacher, United Kingdom "I use the resources from the Games Section as part of my daily 30-minute morning warm-up activities, and I've received rave reviews for using them. The games help me maintain student interest and participation and leave the students feeling happy and awake. I like everything about the site, and customer support is very effective as they respond in time." EFL Teacher, Argentina "Teach-This is one of the best EFL websites I've found. It's extremely user-friendly, and I always find what I need quickly. I like the design, and the content is fun, engaging and original. I am very thankful for all your work and generosity by making some resources free. I always recommend this website to my fellow teachers. Your work is really helpful, and I value it enormously." Language School Teacher, Czechia "I like the grammar-focused resources the most as they save me time. The resources also inspire me. If I see an interesting grammar activity, I often rework it for other grammar rules. I like the fact that I simply pay a flat fee, and I can download whatever I want. Teach-This really is a great timesaver. I know that if I am in need of resources for my students, I can go to Teach-This and find something interesting." English Teacher, Kenya "Getting familiar with the site and how to use the resources is not difficult. I found the writing skills resources to be the most valuable as they have enhanced my teaching of this skill. The website is elaborate and full of all types of resources to help me teach English. When I contacted customer support, they were super-fast to deal with my enquiry. So overall, I recommend it." ESL Teacher, Morocco "I have found the grammar and vocabulary resources the most valuable. They have improved my teaching experience because they are easy to use and well-organized. The materials are very engaging for my students. The website is also very user-friendly. The best thing about Teach-This is that it offers ready-made worksheets for busy teachers, and the content is well-organized and full of information." High School Teacher, Kurdistan "I'm really glad I found the Teach-This website. The materials in the General English section have proven to be really helpful and made my classes more engaging. The materials are well-structured and cover a wide range of topics, making it easy to keep my students interested and motivated. Overall, my experience using your resources has been great." EFL Teacher, Yemen "My first impression of the website was that it was amazing. The games and activities have really improved my teaching. The resources are engaging and relevant to my students' needs, and I find the website easy to use and navigate. Thanks." English Teacher, India "I would like to thank you for making a fantastic website. I particularly enjoy teaching the functional language materials, which have been very helpful in my classes. The resources have significantly improved my students' communication skills in daily life, so it was rewarding to see them benefit in this way. It feels great to be able to make a difference in my students' lives. Please keep up the good work." Academic English Coordinator, Spain "I've been teaching Academic English for over eight years, and Teach-This.com has become my go-to resource for university preparation classes. The academic vocabulary exercises and speaking test preparation activities are exceptionally well-designed for advanced learners. My students particularly appreciate the study skills resources and paragraph writing materials, which have significantly boosted their confidence and exam scores." Cookies user preferencesWe use cookies to ensure you to get the best experience on our website. If you decline the use of cookies, this website may not function as expected.AnalyticsWe use Google Analytics cookies to understand how our website is used and to improve your experience. These cookies collect information anonymously, such as the number of visitors and the most popular pages.Google AnalyticsAcceptDeclineEssential/Strictly Necessary CookiesThis cookie is set by Cloudflare to identify trusted web traffic and verify legitimate users after completing security checks, such as a CAPTCHA. It ensures the website remains secure and accessible without impacting performance. This cookie is essential for the proper functioning and security of the site and cannot be disabled.AdvertisementIf you accept, the ads on the page will be adapted to your preferences.Save

Crime vocabulary exercises. Crime vocabulary. Crime vocabulary esl. English crime vocabulary.