Barry humphries kath and kim

Missing Imagekath & Kim.jpg Jane Turner and Gina Riley As "Kath & Kim" Kath and Kim is a satirical Australian television series shown on the ABC network. The series started in 2002, and it is so far transmitted to three seasons. The show was created and written by Jane Turner and Gina Riley, who perform the roles of the title. The main characters are: Kath, a divorce 'empty Nester' who wants to enjoy the time with his "Hunk of Spunk" Kel, a local butcher, but whose lifestyle is often narrow from the presence of her daughter from twenty- Something self-indulgent. Kim Brett's husband and Kim Sharon's second best friend add chaos. Kim and Brett had a child in the final episode of the second series that called Epponnee-Raelen Kathleen Darlene Charlene Craig, abbreviated to Epponnee-Rae. The characters of Kath, Kim and Sharon were originally developed at the beginning of the 90s in a recurring vignette in the Sketch Skety Skety Skety of the great success of the Big Girl Girl. These seams, sending a wall-mounted TV series that follows a mother and a daughter who plan the daughter's marriage, continued to evolve in the short-lived comedy series something stupid. The original vignettes rarely presented characters other than Kath, Kim or Sharon (in a Skit Brett was played by Jane Turner) and were the base for the textures of the first two series. Kim and Kim added the characters of Kath Kel's boyfriend and Kim Brett's husband (Peter Rowsthorn) and expanded on the characters that had originated in original games. In the tradition of Barry Humphries and its famous Satiric Creation Dame Edna Everger, Kath & Kim Satirise The habits and values of suburban modern Australians and underlines the kitsch and superficial elements of contemporary society, in particular the traditional working class that has progressed to a level of turnout (or "effluenza" as mentioned by Kath) which previous generations had not been able to reach. Strong script, crack and embarrassing behavior of characters, and their perfect sense of fashion are popular features of the show. The highly developed alternative vocabulary and the wrong pronunciation of the words of the two main characters is much repeated by the show fans: "Ä ny-oice, it is different, is a-EWES-YEWL!" Much of humor is based on characters, derived from spectators who recognize themselves, their families or their friends in the characters. In this way it is similar to the Comedy of the United Kingdom the Royle family which he also sent in Australia on the ABC. Kath and Kim don't always comply with the sober naturalistic style of the Royle family, however it is generally presented in the form of a documentary "flying on the wall". This parodication of the genus of the TV reality, including the occasional vocal-overs character, derives in part by a series of "real-life" such as the waters of Sylvania, and in the American comedy series as the spectacle of Larry Sanders. Like the spectacle of Larry Sanders, the Office and the Rhine 911! It does not have a trace of overdolid laughter. The scandalous fashions worn by Kath and Kim, and Kath, Kim and the constant search for Kel and Kel and their ridiculous concern and their concern to appear to fashion and "with-IT" remembers absolutely fabulous; Both this popular British series, and the series of sketch comedies that generated, French and Saunders, are probably influences on Kath & Kim. Although it was initially rejected by the ABC during the controversial regime Director General ABC Jonathan Shrier, Kath and Kim became an immediate success with the public and is now the series of most successful comedies ever developed and produced by the ABC. However, some people have been offended, with critics that claim that the show could never appeal directly to People who were satirisi, as they probably do not recognize the elements of the conveyed comedy. His success was largely the result of a "word of mouth" ever increasing with the admirers of the show and the detractors who take the time to discuss and advertise the show. The theme song is Anthony Newley's Newley's Joker", which is performed by Gina Riley. Cast Main cast Jane Turner plays Kathleen Darlene Day-Knight -- An empty nester who is proud of her home and her appearance. She likes to keep it clean. Gina Riley plays Kim Day-Craig... A self-absurd and always-complicating woman who, despite her "people skills", her employer call center can somehow do without her. Magda Szubanski plays Sharon Strzlecki -- unlucky in love, but a good netball player. Glenn Robbins plays Kel Knight -- The best half of Kath and a gourmet butcher. Peter Rowsthorn plays Brett Craig -- Kim's husband who works in the electronics department of a department store. In series three, Cujo -- Brett's dog -- and Epponnee Rae -- Brett and Kim's baby girl -- were added to the credits. All the cast were regulars on the sketch comedian parades of the late 1980s and early 1990s that led to the creation of Kath & Kim, and all are veterans of Melbourne's thriving live comedy scene. Riley, and Turner for the first time came to prominence as cast members of the popular TV sketch comedy series Fast Forward; their co-star Magda Szubanski (Sharon) had gained fame on the previous The D-Generation, which had also featured Kath and Kim recurring guest Marg Downey. Riley later co-starred with humorists John Clarke and Bryan Dawe in the famous Olympic Games satire, The Games. Szubanski also won international recognition for a leading role in the popular children's movie Babe. Glenn Robbins (Kel) also stars Russell Coight in the famous comedy series, All Aussie Adventures, which parodies outback adventure shows like The Crocodile Hunter. Peter Rowsthorn appeared on the Comedy Company sketch show (which also starred Glenn Robbins). Many of Kath & Kim's casual characters are played by comedians who worked with Riley, Turner and Szubanski on the previous series, although its growing popularity has also seen several Australian drama actors -- including Geoffrey Rush -- appearing in cameo roles. The main cast in other roles Riley and Turner also play the recurring characters of Prue and Trude: two shop assistants in an expensive gift shop, in episodes 1x08, 2x02, 3x02, 3x07 and 3x08. Riley played Robyn Evenish, the "dragon lady" and director of the Fountain Lakes Players, in 3x04 Turner played Damian, a jockey and a short love interest of Sharon, in 3x02 Szubanski played Lorraine, Brett's mother and self-confessed bitch, in 3x03. A significant number of Australian actors and comedians have had guest roles in the show. Marg Downey has a recurring role as Marion, an inept marriage counselor/love with somewhat unusual methods, who appears in episodes 1x04, 1x08, 2x01, 3x01, 3x07 and 3x08. Downey performed with the cast in sketch shows like Fast Forward and something stupid. Young Zara Harrington played Epponnee Rae, Kim and Brett's Baby in Season 3. Her full name is Epponnee Raeleen Kathleen Darleen Sharleen Craig . Tony Martin played Mark, Sharon's boyfriend on-again/off-again in 1x02, 1x08, 2x04 and 2x05. Peta Brady played Kelly, Brett's Demanding Leader, in 1x06, 2x04, 3x01 and 3x02. Comedian guest Mark Trevorrow acted as Kel's tailor in 1x07 and 2x08. Sibylla Budd played Lisa-Marie, Sharon's new best friend, in episode 2x03. Vince Colosimo played Jared, Brett's partner, on 2x04. Judith Lucy's guest acted as Bettina, a native class teacher, in 2x06. William McInnes played Sandy Freckle, Kel's best companion and worst enemy, in 2x07 and 2x08. Mick Molloy plays Gary Poole, Kath's first husband, in 2x08 and 3x01. Rachel Griffiths acted like herself, at competitions with a very Kath in 3x02. Mark Holden acted as himself when Kim enters his daughter Epponee Rae in a children's competition called Bub's Idol (as Mark is a judge on the Australian Idol), in 3x02. Geoffrey Rush was a guest in the 3x03 as a neighbor of Kath and Kel. John. Clarke acted on 3x06 as a real estate agent. Colin Lane Lane stirred in 3x06 as a spa seller. Kylie Minogue played Epponnee Rae, in the future, the day of her wedding, in 3x08. She also had a brief role not accredited at the end of 3x07 as herself.
