CC0/qMona/Pixabay Timers and stopwaters are important tools for fitness and training programs, but are also useful for a variety of other activities. Stopwatch applications are available as standard programs on many smartphone devices. However, those looking for an easy-to-use chronometer application that is one step above the basic offer should check these ten pick-ups. Timeglass (iOS)Timeglass is one of the highest apps for Apple devices. It has a minimalist design that makes it easy to navigate. You can choose color and sound themes to customize the app to your preferences. With the chronometer function, time counts so you can time your workout. In addition, set timers disposable and repeated for other tasks. CCO/steveph/Pixabay Stopwatch Timer for Android is designed for a hand-operated operation, so you can easily control during a workout or other activities. It displays time intervals in digital or analog format, recording minutes, seconds and milliseconds. The app allows you to store the data you refer to later or send as file via email, text or social networking. The CCO/27707/Pixabay Multitimer (iOS)Multitimer is a step forward from the account timer to the basic overthrow and chronometer on the iPhone. The display has several circles on the main screen that you can customize to different timers and timers. The basic application is free of charge and offers a high quality chronometer, reliable, but the paid version unlocks other features. CCO/yellowcat/Pixabay Timer (Android)Timer has a clean, simple look and is easy to use. One of its main features is the widget, which you can place right on your home screen. You can start and stop the timer or timer countdown without having to open the app. CC BY-SA 2.0/Ritesh Man Tamrakar/Flickr Tabata Stopwatch Pro (Android, iOS)Tabata Stopwatch Pro has been with HIIT in mind. Help automate your training with exercise, rest, cooling and other intervals. It has a basic system for people who are new to HIIT training, but it is CCO / Tacofleur / Pixabay Google Clock (Android) Google Clock is perhaps the easiest chronometer to use on Android devices. Just start the stopwatch and click on the «laps» button to record the intervals. Because the app was developed by Google, you can be sure that it works perfectly with marshmallow. CCO / StockSnap / Pixabay Stopwatch Timer for devices (Windows, Stopwatch Timer for Mac OS X)Stopwatch Timer for Windows and Mac OS X is an easy-to-use stopwatch and timer. With a single tap, start the timer on the home screen. During the use of the timer, the location is temporarily deactivated so you can quickly access it during the workout. CCO / StockSnap / Pixabay Timer + (iOS)Timer + is an update of the base app of the 7" iOS clock. With Timer + you can run anything simultaneously and all appear on the same screen. This app is optimized for use with Apple Watch, simplifying its use during the year. CCO / FanCoco / Pixabay Intervals (iOS)Intervals is a timer designed specifically for training intervals. Unlike the aforementioned app, it checks using your Apple Watch, even if it runs simultaneously on your iPhone. Other functions include voice controls and combination with the Health App. CCO / Charlie0111 / Pixabay Stopwatch and Timer for Android has been one of the best timer applications since 200exes performs basic functions without a lot of extra features. Those who want more functionality can perform the update to the paid version. You can customize the appearance of the app and rename the different timers to meet your needs.
