Conteúdo Criado e Revisado pela nossa equipe Índice do Conteúdo Xerem é um alimento típico da culinária brasileira, especialmente popular nas regiões nordeste e centro-oeste. Trata-se de uma espécie de farinha feita a partir do milho, que é uma base importante para diversas receitas. O xerem é conhecido por sua versatilidade e pode ser utilizado em pratos doces e salgados, além de ser considerado uma iguaria em várias tradições culinárias. Origem do xerem A origem do xerem remonta aos povos indígenas que habitavam a região do Brasil, que já utilizavam o milho em sua alimentação. Com o passar do tempo, essa prática foi incorporada à cultura afro-brasileira e à culinária regional, resultando em um alimento que simboliza a mistura de influências culturais no país. O xerem é especialmente valorizado em festividades e celebrações, tornando-se parte importante da identidade gastronômica local. Como é feito o xerem? O processo de produção do xerem envolve a seleção e a moagem do milho. Primeiramente, os grãos de milho são cozidos, geralmente em água com sal, até que fiquem macios. Após o cozimento, os grãos são triturados ou moídos, resultando em uma farinha grossa, que é o xerem. Dependendo da região, pode haver variações na forma de preparo, mas a essência do alimento permanece a mesma. Usos culinários do xerem O xerem pode ser utilizado de diversas formas na culinária. Uma de suas aplicações mais comuns é na preparação de farofas, onde é combinado com ingredientes como cebola, alho e carnes. Também é utilizado em receitas de bolos, mingaus e até mesmo em pratos de acompanhamento, como substituto do arroz ou da massa. Sua textura e sabor característicos conferem um toque especial às receitas, agradando a muitos paladares. Xerem em diferentes regiões do Brasil Embora o xerem tenha suas raízes na culinária brasileira como um todo, ele é especialmente popular em algumas regiões, como Minas Gerais e Bahia. Em Minas, o xerem é frequentemente servido como acompanhamento de pratos típicos, enquanto na Bahia, é comum encontrá-lo em receitas que fazem parte do tradicional acarajé. A diversidade regional das preparações com xerem reflete a riqueza cultural do Brasil. Benefícios nutricionais do xerem O xerem, sendo feito a partir do milho, é uma fonte de nutrientes essenciais. Ele contém carboidratos, fibras, vitaminas e minerais, que são importantes para a saúde. O consumo de alimentos à base de milho, como o xerem, pode contribuir para uma dieta equilibrada e saudável, além de fornecer energia para o dia a dia. É, portanto, uma alternativa interessante para quem busca variar a alimentação. Xerem e a culinária sustentável A popularidade do xerem está também ligada à sua contribuição para a culinária sustentável. O milho é uma cultura amplamente cultivada no Brasil, e o uso do xerem produto acessível e que pode ser encontrado em feiras e mercados locais, contribuindo para a economia regional. Existem inúmeras receitas que utilizam o xerem como ingrediente principal. Entre as mais populares, destacam-se o xerem doce, que pode ser feito com leite de coco e açúcar. Essas receitas não apenas valorizam o xerem, mas também resgatam tradições culinárias que são passadas de geração em geração. Xerem na gastronomia contemporânea, sendo incorporado em pratos inovadores por chefs de cozinha que buscam resgatar ingredientes tradicionais. Essa valorização do xerem demonstra a importância de ingredientes regionais na construção de uma identidade gastronômica moderna e sustentável, atraindo tanto o público local quanto turistas interessados em experiências autênticas., the free encyclopedia that anyone can edit. 117,922 active editors 6,998,635 articles in English An RATP Group electric Heuliez Bus shuttles athletes from the Olympic Village. intertidal zone to a depth of 30 m (100 ft), this species is common throughout the tropical Indian and western Pacific Oceans in nearshore, coral reef-associated habitats. It is a fairly small ray, not exceeding 35 cm (14 in) in width, with a mostly smooth, oval pectoral fin disc, large protruding eyes, and a relatively short and thick tail with a deep fin fold underneath. It can be easily identified by its striking color pattern of many electric blue spots on a yellowish background, with a pair of blue stripes on the tail. This bluespotted ribbontail ray was photographed in the Red Sea off the coast of Egypt. Photograph credit: Diego Delso Recently featured: Black Lives Matter art Germanicus The Cocoanuts Archive

In September 2022, the Academy hired television producers Glenn Weiss and Ricky Kirshner to oversee production of the 2023 ceremony. [25] AMPAS president Janet Yang and CEO Bill Kramer remarked that they looked "to deliver an exciting and energized show" with Weiss and Kirshner. [26] Two months later, comedian and talk show host Jimmy Kimmel to oversee production of the 2023 ceremony. was announced as host of the gala. "Being invited to host the Oscars for a third time is either a great honor or a trap," Kimmel stated in a press release regarding his selection. "Either way, I am grateful to the Academy for asking me so quickly after everyone good said no", he concluded.[27] Furthermore, AMPAS announced that all 23 categories would be presented live during the gala. The announcement came in response to an internal survey which indicated negative feedback regarding the previous year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below-the-line categories prior to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below to the live portion of last year's decision to present eight below to the live portion of last year's decision to the l announced that the organization hired a "crisis team" in the event a similar altercation or if an unexpected fiasco arose. [29] In an interview published by Time magazine, Kramer explained: "We have a whole crisis team, something we've never had before, and many plans in place. We've run many scenarios. So it is our hope that we will be prepared for anything that we may not anticipate right now but that we're planning for just in case it does happen."[30] The Dolby Theatre stage on the day of the ceremony Several others participated in the production designers Misty Buckley and Alana a lighter shade of carpet color in order to not clash with a sienna-colored tent erected to shield attendees from the sunset on a white-sand beach at the 'golden hour' with a glass of champagne in hand, evoking calm and peacefulness" [35] Lady Gaga was initially not scheduled to perform her nominated song "Hold My Hand" from Top Gun: Maverick due to prior commitments involving her role in Joker: Folie à Deux. On the morning of the ceremony, however, it was reported that Gaga would perform at the ceremony. [36] Meanwhile, actress Glenn Close, who was originally scheduled as a presenter during the gala, canceled her appearance due to a positive COVID-19 test.[37] When the nominated for Best Picture had earned a combined gross of $1.57 billion at the American and Canadian box offices at the time. Top Gun: Maverick was the highest-grossing film among the Best Picture nominees with $718.7 million in domestic box office receipts.[38] Avatar: The Way of Water came in second with $598.4 million), The Banshees of Inisherin ($9 million), Tar ($5.6 million), Triangle of Sadness ($4.2 million), and Women Talking ($1.1 million). The box office figures for All Quiet on the Western Front were unavailable due to their distributor Netflix's policy of refusing to release such figures. [39] Furthermore, by virtue of Avatar: The Way of Water and Top Gun: Maverick's Best Picture nominations, it marked the first time since the 55th ceremony in 1983 that the two highest grossing films of the year were both nominated in the aforementioned category.[40] Andrea Riseborough's Best Actress nomination for To Leslie was controversial amongst critics and pundits, as Momentum Pictures, the film's distributor, did not fund a conventional advertising-driven awards campaign for the film. Instead, director Michael Morris and his wife, actress Mary McCormack, organized a "celeb-backed campaign" to get Riseborough nominated.[41][42] They contacted friends and colleagues in the entertainment industry, asking them to view the film and share it with others if they enjoyed it.[43] Morris and Riseborough also hired publicists to coordinate the efforts. While not initially regarded as serious contender, the campaign raised Riseborough's profile; dozens of celebrities praised her performance on social media, and some hosted screenings of the film during voting for the Academy Award nominations in January 2023.[44][45] Riseborough's nomination was announced on January 24, which the Los Angeles Times called "one of the most shocking nominations in Oscar history".[43] After her nomination was announced, speculation arose that the tactics might have violated AMPAS members for possibly violating a rule prohibiting "[singling] out 'the competition' by name" by featuring a quote from film critic Richard Roeper, who praised Riseborough's performance as better than Cate Blanchett's in Tár, a fellow nominee for Best Actress.[47] On January 27, the Academy announced a review of the year's campaigns "to ensure that no guidelines were violated, and to inform us whether changes to the guidelines may be needed in Academy concluded its review by pledging to address "social media and outreach campaigning tactics" which they said caused "concern", but confirming that Riseborough's nomination would be retained.[49] Following the controversy, the Academy introduced new campaigning rules and clarifications in May 2023.[50] Variety columnist Owen Gleiberman wrote: "It didn't rock the boat, it didn't overstay its welcome, and it left you feeling that the world's preeminent awards show, all doom-saying punditry to the contrary, is still, on balance, a very good thing." He also added that the wins received by Everything Everything Fienberg of The Hollywood Reporter similarly praised the show's emotional beats and found its flaws "were mitigated more gracefully than just about any Oscars telecast" he could recall.[52] Mick LaSalle of the San Francisco Chronicle commended Kimmel's stint as host stating: "He was establishing that 2023 would not be a repeat of 2022 — and it wasn't

 It was such a relief to see something, anything, anything, actually get better."[53] Mike Hale of The New York Times remarked on "the ordinariness and sameness of the ABC broadcast" compared to the prior year,[54] while USA Today's Kelly Lawler criticized it as "terribly fake" and felt that Kimmel's role "felt phoned in, or at least maybe monitored by corporate overlords looking to avoid controversy" despite some of his jokes tackling controversial subjects such as the January 6 United States Capitol attack and Tom Cruise's Scientology advocacy. [55] Hale added that "the modern Oscars have become something more to be endured than enjoyed". [54] The American telecast on ABC drew in an average of 18.75 million people over its length, which was a 13% increase from the previous year's ceremony with 9.9% of households increase since the 86th Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings compared to the previous ceremony with 9.9% of households increase since the 86th Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings compared to the previous ceremony with 9.9% of households increase since the 86th Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings compared to the previous year's ceremony with 9.9% of households increase since the 86th Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings compared to the previous year's ceremony with 9.9% of households in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings compared to the previous year's ceremony and marked the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings compared to the previous year's ceremony and marked the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings compared to the previous year's ceremony and marked the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings compared to the previous year's ceremony and marked the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings are the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings are the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings are the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings are the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings are the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings are the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The show also earned higher Nielsen ratings are the first time that the Academy Awards in 2014.[3] The sh
