Review: showsviseen.com/3179 #theatre Mama Will Provide Kecia Lewis-Evans & Once on This Island Ensemble Elevator Thoughts (aka Tweet): Once On This Island musical at Tacoma Musical Playhouse w/ the 1st live band since the 2019! Novel tribal-like choreography. Excellent Mother. Refreshing diverse tropical vibes desperately needed in the cloudy PNW winter. Synopsis from the Theatre: From the Tony Award-winning songwriting team of Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty (Seussical, Ragtime), comes the Olivier Award-winning Once on This Island. This highly original and theatrical Caribbean adaptation of the popular fairy tale, The Little Mermaid, garnered eight Tony nominations for its Broadway run, including Best Musical, Book and Score.Reviewed Performance: 1/13/23 Opening NightType:MusicalWorld Premiere: NoAwards: Olivier AwardLive Band/Orchestra: Yes This was the first live band at TMP since the beginning of the pandemic. It significantly improved the caliber of the production compared to the shows that utilized an accompaniment recording.Recommendation: See it if you like tropical genres like Tarzan or The Jungle BookWas This the First Time I Saw a Production of this Show: No, I previously saw this from Ludus Performing ArtsWould I See It Again 3 Years from Now: Yes, if it was an Equity productionRating Compared to Other Shows with the Same Production Value: 4.5 Stars (Out of 5 Stars) Equity Actors: Zerolength: 2 hoursIntermission: Yes Other Rave(s) Not Mentioned in Elevator Thoughts Voices: LaNita Hudson Walters was my favorite performer from this production especially with her distinct voice. She portrayed Mama Euralie, a gristly old Caribbean peasant woman. Honorable mention to Chanel Finnie (Asaka goddess of Earth) and Jadyn Muralt (Ti Moune the main character) as well.Rant(s)Death Explanation: The script doesnt adequately explain a how a significant death occurred. I wont say more to avoid spoiling the plot for readers who havent seen the musical yet. Other Thought(s)Scenic Design: Great hotel facade especially with the closing front gates. It was a little weird though seeing the hotel behind the peasant scenes. The hotel facade should only appear during the townsfolk scenes. The peasants needed their own more primitive backdrop. But I regonize the constraints of community theatre budget. Blind Love: Can I just say that love makes you do stupid things? As a pragmatic person who has never fallen in love, Im appalled at the nonsensical decisions in this story for the sake of love.
